

Transforming Ethiopia's Health Financing Landscape

Over two decades, Abt Associates has partnered with USAID Ethiopia to design and successfully implement health financing reforms. These reforms have widened availability of financial resources at health facilities and improved the quality of health care services. Health facilities can now also function autonomously under the leadership of governing boards, enhancing transparency, accountability, and stakeholders' participation in decision-making. More Ethiopians now access better health care services with reduced financial risk.